

Chris Ramos - A licensed customs broker since 1994, has over 30 years' experience in import brokerage and logistics, exclusively with KSI Corp. Mr. Ramos started as a Warehouse Agent and throughout his career moved up to Import Agent, Supervisor, National Import Manager, and most recently to his current position as Vice President of National Import Operations. He is responsible for managing the day-to-day operations - overseeing the import staff in San Francisco, as well as managing KSI's domestic partners across the United States.

He has been a dedicated and active participant in the local transportation trade community including CBFANC (Customs Brokers & Forwarders Association of Northern California), having served on the Board of Directors (Vice President & Director) and in various Customs and transportation committees.